

Cheddar Gorge & The Mendip Hills Painting Holidays 2009/10 with Michael Sanders

Above: Michael demonstrating at Chew Valley Lake

Right: Michael helping a guest with their painting by illustrating colour and tones required (with their permission of course).

Below: Michael helping a guest with composition at Blagdon Lake

Above: Michael demonstrating by Cheddar Lake in the gorge

Below: An illustration in aerial perspective. On the left a guests picture and on the right Michael's interpretation of the need for aerial perspective which gives the recession needed in landscapes.

